FOR PRESIDENT IN 1888,

JAMES G. BLAINE

OF MAINE,

Subject to the decision of the Republi-can National Convention.

"We always have the American flag above us and not below us."—James G.

AN IMPORTANT OPINION.

In the report of the proceedings of the Commissioners, on the 5th, it was stated that the District Attorney entered his protest against the payment of a bill to a deputy, and for assistance rendered to one of the county officers. These protests were based on the following opinion fited by the District Attorney: To the Hon, the Board of County Commissioners of Washoe County, Nevada. The matter of allowing certain bills for services to and for county officials which are a part of the official duties has been questioned.

In the allowance of compensation, as in all other enties, your body must look to the slatutes for your authority; be-cause you have no power other than that vested in you by the Legislature.

Section one of an Act regulating the compensations of county officers in the several counties of the State, and other matters related thereto' approved March 11, 1885, provides that "the following named officers of the several counties in this State, shall receive the following compensations, which shall be in full for all services and ex-officio services required by law."

This section is so strong and plain that comment would be surporfluous.

Section two of said Act, which was amended by an Act approved February 19th, 1887, the only change made being the dividing the Recorder's salary, giving him as Auditor twelve hundred dollars of the eighteen allowed as Recorder and ex-officio Auditor, reads as follows:

SECTION 1 .- Section two of said Act is hereby amended so as to read as fol-

SECTION 2 .- The Sheriff of Washoe county shall receive thirty-six hundred dollars per annum as the total compensation of said Sheriff, Deputy Sheriff and Jailor, provided, the said Sheriff shat be paid his actual necessary expenses incurred in traveling on official business, to be allowed and paid as other claims are allowed and paid. The County Clerk shall receive eighteen hundred dollars per annum; the County Recorder and ex-Officio Auditor shall receive eighteen hundred dollars per aunum, of which sum twelve hundred dollars shall be paid for his salary as Auditor; the Treasurer shall receive eighteen handred dollars per annum; the Assessor shall receive eighteen hundred dollars per annum; the Superintendent of Schools shall receive four handred dollars per annum; the District Attorney shall receive fifteen hundred dollars per annum, which shall be full compensation for all services; the Commissioners shall each receive six hundred dollars per annum."

Said Section 2 makes no provisions for, nor does it authorize the appointment of any deputy except for the Sheriff, whose compensation is fixed at thirtysix hundred dollars a year, which is the total compensation for the Sheriff, his deputy and jailor. It may not be incumbent on the Sheriff to employ, all office, Saturday, September 10, 1887; the time, two men to act as deputy and Bartled, J.R. Morrel Mrs. Add. jailor; but if, for the proper performance of the duties of his omce such appears and juilor are necessary, then it is the Buckingham, E duty of the Sheriff to employ them, and Buck, CL Baker, Frank A

Under an Act approved February 19, 1864, all Prosecuting Attorneys, County Recorders, Clerka of the several District Courts, County Clerks, Sheriffs, etc., are authorized to appoint deputies, and Section 2 of said Act provides that the said officers shall be responsible for the compensation of said deputies, (see General Laws, Section 2279-2281 inclu-

Section 18 of an Act approved March 11, 1879, gave the County Commissioners authority to provide for "extra help" and to pay for the same. That Section, if not before repealed by implication, was repealed except in counties having a duly chartered City Government, by an Act approved March 1, 1883, (see Laws 1883 page 78).

February 36, 1881, is not and never was it done in the old way. applicable to Washoe county, because the requisite vote was never polled.

Under the Act approved February 23, 1887, the Commissioners may authorize the Assessor to appoint one or more deputies, and are authorized to pay such deputy or deputies as provided in the Act.

This last Act is the only Act that gives power to the Commissioners of Washos county to authorize the appointment of a deputy, or deputies, for any officer whose salary is fixed by the Act of 1885, or the amendatory Act, except the Assessors, so as to make the services rendered a charge against the county, and there is no provision of law for giving any county officer, except the Assessor, any extra help or assistance in the performance of services required of him, where the compensation is fixed, and which be in full for all services and ex-officio services required by law.

This being so, all bills for extra help or for deputies, except in the case of the Assessor, under any guise or name, presented by a county officer should be rejected by you.

PIEBCE EVANS, Dist. Atty.

A PLUCKY SHERIFF

His Hard Fight in Which Two Desperadoes were Killed.

About the 20th of last month Billy Vicker, a desperado of Idaho, who had robbed and murdered there, was followed to Rock Creek, in the Stein mountain country, Oregon, by a Sheriff of Idaho, whose name we did not learn. The Sheriff found Vicker, arrested him and had the hand cuffs on him, when Mrs. Heron and Miss Dunn. of Surprise Valley, stepped between the prisoner and the Plucky Sheriff, when a young man whom the Sheriff did not know, handed the handcuffed Vicker a revolver, when he and the young man at once commenced firing at the Sheriff, who seeing all hands of both sexes against him fired but two shots and then fled for more assistance. The handcuffed Vicker soon got his irons off and he with the young man pursued the Sheriff forty miles to Guano Valley, to kill him. Arriving at W. H. Shirk's, who is a son-in-law of J. L. Crow, of Clover Valley, they asked for breakfast which was given them. The Sheriff was seeking help near by at that moment, and , while eating, Mrs. Shirk went out and informed the Sheriff, who asked her husband to aid him, when they went to the house, and just as they reached it the young man stepped out, when Shirk covered him with a rifle ordering him to stand, which he did, and the Sheriff stepped into the door confronting Vicker covered him with his rifle, ordering him to throw up his hands, which he did not do, but reached and drew his revolver, when the Sheriff shot him through the head. Vioker exchanged a few shots with the Sheriff, and received two bullets in the head, when he fell dead with his head on the table. The young man sutside fired at Shirk while the firing was going on inside, he no doubt thinking that Vicker would be victorious, when he received a shot from either the Sheriff or Shirk which killed him, but not until Shirk had received a shot in the knee. Mr. Shirk is 'now at Cedarville being treated for his wound and the brave Sheriff returned unhurt to Idaho, to receive the reward which was offered for Vicker, In both cases women were concerned. Once in their escape and lastly in their capture and death. The woman of those northern counties are brave, and while bravery to do right, is commendable, the bravery of these two former women should not be too hastily condemned, for they may not have understood that they were aiding in the escape of such a vile character as Vicker at the time. We are informed that Vicker was one of the noted desperadoes of this northern region. Mrs. Shirk's bravery is highly commendable, but she had no idea when she was preparing that breakfast table that a dead man's head and blood would be found among the dishes at the end of the meal. The first interference caused the death of the robbers and the last saved, no doubt, that of the Sheriff. So says the Sierra Valley
